

Click on the Articulation Tool.

For each chord, position the dots on the guitar fretboard, or position the arrows to point to the correct keys to play each of the chords as shown on the staff. (If the string on the fretboard is open, place the 'dot' above the string).

F

The diagram for the F chord shows four measures of music on a treble clef staff. Each measure contains a single F chord. Below the staff are four sets of diagrams. Each set consists of a piano keyboard with three arrows pointing to the F3, F4, and C5 keys, and a guitar fretboard with three dots indicating the positions for the F3, F4, and C5 strings.

Dm

The diagram for the Dm chord shows four measures of music on a treble clef staff. Each measure contains a single Dm chord. Below the staff are four sets of diagrams. Each set consists of a piano keyboard with three arrows pointing to the D3, F3, and A3 keys, and a guitar fretboard with three dots indicating the positions for the D3, F3, and A3 strings.